

5.05 Approaches and Treatment Rubric

(40/40 Points)

Rubric	10 points	7 points	4 points
Biological/medical model	Includes 3 well written sentences fully describing the theory's view and treatment of mental illness including the terms drug therapy, electroconvulsive therapy, psychosurgery and focus is on the individual	The three sentences are not well written, or do not fully describe the theory's view and treatment of mental illness or all terms not used	Does not include three sentences, or has many content errors or the writing does not make sense, or does not include correct use of terms
Cognitive approach	Includes 3 well written sentences fully describing the theory's view and treatment of mental illness including the terms Rational Emotive therapy, Cognitive Restructuring therapy and focus is on the individual	The three sentences are not well written, or do not fully describe the theory's view and treatment of mental illness or all terms not used	Does not include three sentences, or has many content errors or the writing does not make sense, or does not include correct use of terms
Sociocultural theory	Includes 3 well written sentences fully describing the theory's view and treatment of mental illness including the terms group therapy, family counseling, focuses on social issues and how the individual fits into society	The three sentences are not well written, or do not fully describe the theory's view and treatment of mental illness or all terms not used	Does not include three sentences, or has many content errors or the writing does not make sense, or does not include correct use of terms
Concluding statement	Concluding statement is perfectly written	Concluding statement is well written but could be improved	Concluding statement is weak or confusing.